The Honorable Louis Stokes
Chairman
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your courteous letter congratulating me on my appointment as Director of Central Intelligence. I appreciate your kind words, and I, too, look forward to a profitable and friendly working relationship with you and the other Members of the Committee.

I think our first meeting, on 3 June, was a good start. I anticipate that our continuing personal exchange of views will be beneficial to us both to establish a candid and forthright relationship.

I look forward to building on our past relationship and hope that we can continue working together to strengthen the Intelligence Community.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence

Honorable William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

I want to offer you my congratulations on your appointment as Director of Central Intelligence.

I know I speak for all of my colleagues on the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence in wishing you success in that role.

The Committee has had an excellent working relationship with you during your many years as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and we look forward to a continuation of that relationship now that you are the DCI.

I am sure that you will find the Members of this Committee ready to work with you to make the United States intelligence community even better than it is.

I look forward to speaking personally to you about my perceptions and those of my colleagues concerning the Agency's relations with the Committee and ways in which they can be improved.

With best wishes,

LOUIS STOKES
Chairman
